SCHOOL VOTE SUMMARY

Incomplete Report On Friday Trustee Election Over County Is Reported

In a majority of elementary school districts of the county, the incumbent trustees were re-elected in last Friday's school election, and James A. Irving was re-elected to the governing board of the high school.

This is on the basis of an incomplete summary of the election, released Tuesday morning by County Superintendent E. J. Fitzgerald. The report is complete as to the districts that have reported, but is incomplete in that some districts have not reported.

There was no election held in Carson Creek, Deer Valley, Green Valley, Live Oak, Penobscot, Salmon Falls, Sly Park, Springvale and United districts.

The superintendent has been asked to re-appoint Marie H. Grien in Deer Valley; James M. Glass in Green Valley; George Safranck in Live Oak; Hector Williamson in Springvale; and Mrs. J. E. Joerg in United district.

County Gunners Star In Shoot

Carsten Leads Class A And Neilsen Tops B Division On Sacramento Range

SACRAMENTO — At the regular monthly registered shoot held by the Sacramento Trapshooting Club at its traps on Auburn Boulevard, Ernest Carsten, Jr., of Camino and Don Traynam of Woodland divided Class A honors when each broke 98x100 in the 16-yard card. Lester Neilsen topped Class B with 97x100, Dr. C. E. Schoff led Class C, breaking 96x100, and Bob Woods, Woodland, with 93x100 was the best in class D.

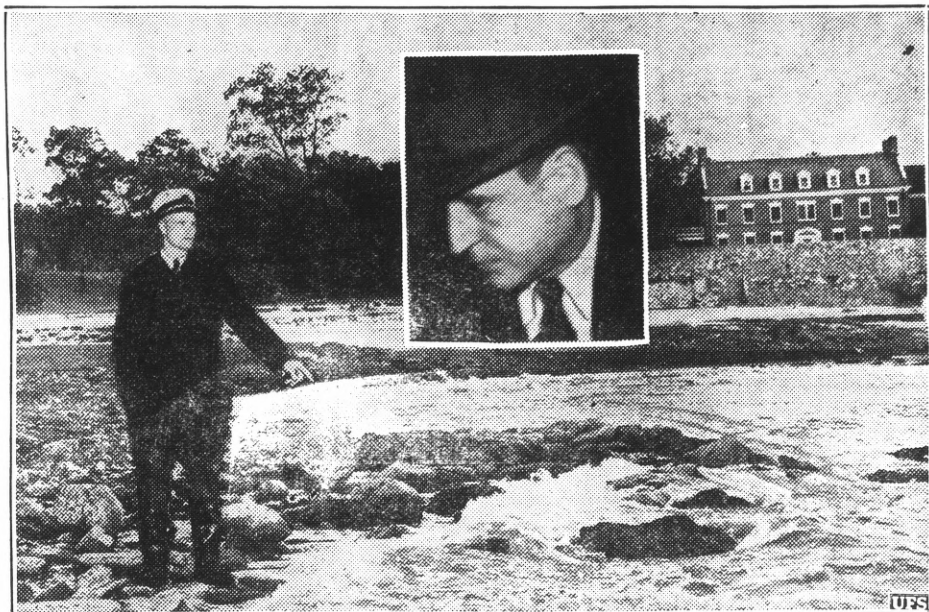

Barney Outfield of San Francisco won a leg on the diamond medal for the second time when his 96x100 led the field in the 100 handicap event. Fred Dambacher of Walnut Grove and Andy Sorensen of Tahoe Vista were runners up with 95x100. Carsten won the doubles contest on a 48x50. J. W. Crane of Turlock broke 46x50 for second money.

RESIDENTS PROTEST ON PROPOSED BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Mrs. Clara Davis was before the city council at its meeting Monday night as spokesman for a large number of petitioners residing on Spring and Canal Streets, objecting to the nature of a proposed business development on the Canal Street site occupied some years ago by an oil station.

Mrs. Davis stated residents of the district have been informed it is proposed to lease the property from the railroad company for the erection of a welding works. She indicated the petitioners are not so much opposed to the use of the site as a business property as they are to the nature of the business which they fear may be installed.

The petitioners feel, it was indicated, that a welding works on the site would be detrimental to residential property values in the vicinity. The council, upon reference to the city zoning ordinance, found that the site mentioned is in the "business zone" and deferred action on the petition.

DE MOLAY ELECT ELWIN SCHEIBER

Shingle Springs Youth New Master Councilor For El Dorado Chapter

Elwin Scheiber, of Shingle Springs, was elected to be Master Councilor of El Dorado Chapter, Order of DeMolay, for the ensuing term at the regular election of the chapter Monday night. He will succeed Arthur Hackwood, also of Shingle Springs.

Other officers chosen include Kenneth Heffron, senior councilor, and Howard Chais, junior councilor.

In addition to electing new officers, the chapter conferred the initiatory degree on three candidates including two from the newly formed chapter at Sutter Creek, and George Buhlman, of Placerville.

Plans were begun for a public majority service on June 29 which will be followed by a dance and social time.

Members of the chapter were at Grass Valley over the week-end to attend the quarterly divisional meeting. Among those of the chapter who attended were Harold Duden, Arthur Hackwood, Howard Chais, Kenneth Heffron, James Pierson, Charles Colridge, Elwin Scheiber and Joe Ronzone.

POLITICAL CANDIDATES SPEAK AT MEETING OF COLOMA CENTER

In response to announcement by Coloma center that it would hold a "Candidates' Night" on June 6, candidates for office in the approaching election visited the center meeting Monday night and spoke briefly.

Those who appeared included John A. Raffetto, Jr., candidate for Assemblyman; District Attorney Henry S. Lyon, Sheriff George M. Smith, Deputy Tax Collector W. F. Truscott, Supervisor Dan M. Bassi, Miss Jane McCusker, candidate for County Recorder; and Kenneth McCoy, Mrs. Edith Y. Baake, Miss Ellen U. Hogan, Robert W. Clothier and Mrs. Ruby G. Melchior, all candidates for Superintendent of Schools.

In addition, a Mrs. Peterson spoke in behalf of Congressman John F. Dockweiler for Governor.

The farm advisor showed motion pictures and discussed the farm bureau and its relation to agricultural research. Refreshments closed the meeting.

Fireworks Ban Called To Public Notice

With the approach of Independence Day, the city council Monday night instructed Marshal James P. Morton to call the attention of merchants generally to the city's regulations governing the sale and discharge of fireworks.

The council felt that calling the matter to the attention of these parties at this advanced date may insure a more complete co-operation with the ordinance in the interests of a "safe and sane" celebration.

The Council Monday night adopted a resolution empowering the Mayor and city clerk to enter into a lease with the Southern Pacific Company for property of the company between Hangtown Creek and the tracks west of Bedford avenue; for a parking area, at an annual rental fee of $10.

Hardly anybody stayed home Monday night, we guess.

Everybody was "out"—and here are some of the events which attracted them—a dance recital at the Shakespear clubhouse, the softball games, a meeting of Leona Rebekah lodge, a meeting of the Order of DeMolay, meeting of the city council, meeting of the governing board of the high school and meeting of Coloma Farm Center—and that is a good deal of activity for one night.

A few minutes past midnight, the City Council "called it a night" and adjourned with plans to meet again later in the month.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Q. Meehan came up Monday from Oakland and returned to their home on Tuesday, following a visit with friends. Mr. Meehan, who some years ago conducted a hardware store in the Masonic temple building, complimented our office with a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Meehan lived for many years at Stockton but about a year ago moved to Oakland.

In the county-wide election, nominating petitions had been filed Tuesday by Juanita H. Emmerson and R. W. Clothier, both candidates for Superintendent of Schools. Petitions nominating George French, of Georgetown, and Will G. Taylor, of Shingle, for justice of the peace in their respective districts, also were on file.

Dr. J. B. Schaffert was a caller from his summer home at Whitehall Monday afternoon and reported passing through rain enroute to Placerville, which probably helped to account for that "sultry" feeling in the air.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tracy are at Oakland this week while Mr. Tracy attends a convention of shoe merchants.

We extend good wishes to George Stermer, 24, and Leona Voss, 18, both of Placerville, who were wed at Reno over the week-end.

The six major wars in which the United States has been engaged, put all together, would make a span of about fifteen years, but in the past fifteen years we have killed almost twice as many persons in auto traffic as were lost on the battlefields in those six major wars.

The volunteer fire department Monday night reported to the city council that complaint has been received from residents in the vicinity of the old high school site on Clay Street, pointing out the need for work there to eliminate a fire hazard. The Council will take the matter up with the governing board of the high school district which owns the plot.

Reporting on city street work during the month of May, Councilman James K. Pierson called attention to the street improvement work being done on Bee Street and stated that his department is preparing to oil unsurfaced streets of the community as soon as possible as they are drying out rapidly.

The possibility of improving Jackson street to make it suitable for truck travel, is being considered by the city.

DILLINGER CHOSEN LION PRESIDENT

Installation Being Planned As Evening Affair June 28; Don M. Hoffman New Member

H. E. Dillinger was elected president of Placerville Lions for the ensuing year at the club's regular election Tuesday noon. Mr. Dillinger, one of the older members of the club in Lionism, will succeed Lion President Bill Hays and will be installed at an evening meeting of the club on June 28.

Other officers elected, who will be installed that same evening, are E. E. Van Harlingen, first vice-president; George E. Faugsted, second vice-president; Arthur Mart, re-elected secretary-treasurer; Harold G. Morehouse, Lion tamer, and Lloyd Cannon and E. Ogden Hood, directors.

The club received letters of thanks from Stannard Gardner, winner, and William Hardie, alternate, in the recent club scholarship award, and other business of the meeting included the induction of Don M. Hoffman as the new cub of the den.

Announcements called attention to the district convention, at Oakland June 18, and the International convention, at Oakland, June 19 to 22.

Entertainment committee for June has Max Baer as chairman, with Harry Gracy, Cecil George and V. E. Allen.

Entertainment for the meeting was by "music ambassadors" of the Reno Rodeo July 2, 3 and 4, who conveyed a musical invitation to the Lions to visit Reno on that date.

Lion President Hays, who had been incapacitated for two meetings by an injury in softball, was again with the club and presided.

CITY TO REQUEST MORE FUNDS FROM PWA FOR SEWER

An application for an amended grant of approximately $7,000 from the PWA for the city's sewer project is being prepared by City Attorney Thomas Maul at the request of the city council.

Mr. Maul states that the amount of money which the city has put into or will put into the sewer project is in excess of 55 per cent of the estimated total cost, and that at the present time the amount of the PWA grant on the project is proportionately less than 45 per cent of the estimated total cost.

The application for an amended grant of $7,000 is intended to result in reaching more nearly the 55-45 proportion in the cost of the project and will, it is said, make it possible to take advantage of certain opportunities for improvement of the sewer system which may not be available otherwise.

50,000 Shriners Frolic In 64th Convention

LOS ANGELES, (UP)—Fifty thousand Shriners took over Los Angeles today, halting traffic with dozens of wandering parades, walking camels down the Broadway sidewalks, and going fishing under a fire hose in City Hall Square.

The 64th annual session of the Imperial Council, ancient Arabic order, nobles of the Mystic Shrine, opened in Memorial Coliseum. The meeting will end Thursday night with an electrical pageant staged by the Hollywood motion picture studios.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ASK CITY FOR PART-TIME COMPENSATION

Other Cities In State Pay Department Members, Says Petition Presented To Council; Chief Declares Plan Will Increase Efficiency Of Organization

Application for part-time compensation for members, effective July 1, was filed by the Placerville Volunteer Fire Department with the city council at its regular June meeting Monday night.

In support of the application, Fire Chief Mark Tetrault said that he and other members of the department feel that some form of compensation will increase the efficiency of the department by insuring a greater participation of

San Joaquin On Rampage

Heavy Run-off Of Melting Snow Sends River Over Banks Near Stockton

STOCKTON (UP)—The San Joaquin river, running three feet above flood stage, broke through its west bank at the Paradise cut today and inundated 4,000 acres of farm land, forcing ten families to evacuate their homes.

Flood waters covered the main San Francisco-Fresno highway No. 5 at Mossdale, nine miles south of Stockton, halting traffic. Automobiles and trucks bound for the San Joaquin Valley were re-routed west.

Fed by a huge runoff of fast-melting snow in the mountains, the river cut a 150-foot break in the bank when it reached a crest of 20.4 feet. Flood stage is 17 feet.

ELECTRIC FRANCHISE HEARING SET FOR JULY 5TH

Action looking to the granting of a franchise for the distribution of electric power in Placerville, was taken by the city council Monday night.

Application of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company for such a franchise had been before the council for some time and the action of the board Monday night was to authorize the advertising of the franchise. However, publication of the advertisement will be withheld until it is determined that the power company and the city are in agreement on its terms.

The company has indicated a desire to acquire a franchise to operate indeterminately, while the council is disposed to limit the franchise to a given period of years.

If the proposed limitation is acceptable to the power company, the notice of intention to grant a franchise will move to publication and a public hearing on the matter will be held on July 5th.

Miss Jean Bache, of Williams, was here to spend the weekend with Miss Patricia Ailman.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ryan, of Alameda, are spending the week with Mrs. Ryan's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Rex A. Barron.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

SOMEWHERE BETWEEN NEW YORK AND DENVER, (AP) — In which a reporter, bound for the west and the National Open of the Century, makes himself a few "century" notes:

Why doesn't some track put up $50,000 in prize money and run a "hypochondriac derby" for all the ailing stake horses? It would be the race of the year, what with Stagehand and his whooping cough, Seabiscuit with his housemaid's knee, Lawrin with his fallen arches, and War Admiral with his "owner's fright" — to make a perfectly fair, a veterinarian could do the handicapping — suggested handicapper Stagehand, three pounds of quinine and an ice pack — Seabiscuit, one crutch and a heating pad — Lawrin, two corn plaster and an unstep brace — War Admiral, a certified check, as that seems to be the only thing that will make his owners start him.

Until I heard that radio broadcast from St. Andrews on Saturday I had always believed that the British led the league when it came to being modest in victory... but their jubilation over winning the Walker Cup for the first time in history, our dear cousins let down their banes and did as fine a job of gloating as you ever heard... typical remark of the broadcaster: "I trust you will pardon me if I read the British scores first, because our scores were so definitely superior"... and... "we have so often read articles in the American newspapers asking what is the matter with British amateur golf... I hope that your papers today are asking what's wrong with America's amateur golf?"

This sort of thing went on until dark, and it doesn't get dark until nearly midnight in St. Andrews you know... I don't believe there is an American, and this goes for the members of our Walker cup team, who begrudges the British victory... if they hadn't won this time there was a good chance that the cup matches would have been abandoned or played under a handicap system...

Watching Pittsburgh's John Woodruff score a double in the 440 and 880 at the I. C. 4-A track meet at Randall's Island Saturday, I heard a track critic say "If that big fellow ever learns to keep out of pockets, he will set records for his distances that will stand forever"... that's about true, because John usually runs some 470 yards in the 440 and 920 in the 880 getting out of trouble... Brutus Hamilton, California track coach, makes all his boys take up a "hobby" event to relieve the monotony of working on their specialties... sometimes a fellow becomes better in his "hobby" than his specialty, and relaxation is that answer to that...

Lawson Robertson of Pennsylvania, head coach of the last American Olympic track and field team, believes that the Olympic fathers should choose a permanent site for the game... Robertson can't see the sense of traipsing from Berlin to Tokyo to Amsterdam to Los Angeles... considers such a procedure a tremendous waste of time and money... too, he thinks the games now

Relief To Be Denied Those Who Are Able To Work And Won't

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

Persons who refuse to accept work at prevailing wages, whatever those prevailing wages are, will be denied relief this year by the State Relief Administration!

That firm declaration of policy by Harold E. Pomeroy, state relief administrator, certainly deserves the hearty commendation of California agriculture and all California taxpayers.

Mr. Pomeroy's statement was in answer to the demands of radical groups which had insisted that the state provide haven and support for persons refusing to work for wages which they considered too low.

"We can't use public relief to change conditions throughout the state," the state relief administrator declared in his enunciation of policy. "That would mean bankruptcy for the state. We haven't enough money from tax funds to do that."

"If business, agriculture, or industry can only pay a certain wage and that is the prevailing wage, then we can't give relief to those who refuse to work at that figure."

"We can't lift ourselves by our own bootstraps above the general level of conditions in the United States and we can't use relief funds to lift ourselves above the average level of conditions in California."

"Our position, therefore, is that relief will be denied wherever work is available under conditions that are prevailing. Of course, we will not have our organization used to help those who would chisel under prevailing standards, but otherwise our position stands."

The soundness—and absolute necessity—of such a ruling will be self-evident to any employer of labor, whether farmer or business man, who realizes the large part which relief costs play in the present extortionate tax load.

And it will be even more enthusiastically received by many farmers who have had personal experience with "unemployed" who refused work at prevailing farm wages because they could get as much or more in relief payments without the inconvenience of working for their "paychecks."

It is to be regretted that the federal relief agencies have adopted a much more lenient attitude than the state, however. For there is a growing realization on the part of many students of present-day conditions that relief rolls never will be purged of the drones and the shiftless until drastic action is taken to weed out the chiselers.

At the present time, California's state relief rolls harbor nearly 65,000 cases, representing 240,000 persons—or nearly 20,000 more than were on state relief at this period a year ago.

But that is only a fraction of the actual relief roll in California. Taking all types of relief into consideration, the authorities estimate that California has one out of seven on relief, with at least 400,000 finding shelter (and support) here who migrated to the state within the last few years.

It would be unfair to condemn the great majority of those now on relief in California as undeserving, for no one can discount the fact that many are victims of conditions which were beyond their control and will gladly take work when it is available.

For those who can't help themselves, the state must provide help. But it is equally true that thousands of California taxpayers who have been able to keep their heads above water by dint of hard work and refusal to be licked are desperately in need of tax relief at the earliest possible opportunity.

With one out of seven on relief, it is time for all government officials to consider the welfare of the industrious workers who are packing the load for the idle. And it is certainly time to crack down on those who refuse work because the wages or working conditions don't appeal to them and yet expect to be fed and supported while they await a return to high wage scales.

Fireman answering an alarm, two dollars to every Fireman when a fire is of such proportion that it is necessary to lay two and one half inch lines and one dollar for each additional hour.

"The Secretary of the Department at the end of each quarter will present a statement to the City Council for payment. The warrant would be payable to the Fire Department in the total amount due and individual payments to the members of the department would be apportioned by the Secretary of the Fire Department."

"With the adoption of this Payment Plan the Fire Department is to hold Fire Drills twice a month. It will be mandatory that all members of the Fire Department attend the Drills. It is proposed that the City pay each Fireman for one Drill per month at the rate of one dollar per member."

"It is the desire of the Placerville Volunteer Fire Department that the Payment Plan as outlined above be adopted by the Placerville City Council and placed in effect as of July 1, 1938."

Forest Fire Threatens Washington Hamlet

ABERDEEN, Wash., (AP) — A forest fire that threatened to wipe out the tiny community, 30 miles inland from the coast, was under control today.

A skeleton crew of 25 men patrolled the fire line. Danger of the fire's again getting out of control was believed past, but forest service men ordered three of the pumps kept on the scene.

Fanned by a brisk wind, the fire jumped yesterday from a pile of stumps to tree tops and started burning toward Neilton.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wing were Monday afternoon callers from Rescue.

Leo Flynn was representing Georgetown in the county seat Monday afternoon.

John Nelson is on vacation this week from duties at the postoffice.

James Kelly, of Kelsey, is spending several days at Sacramento.

YOUNG FARMERS MAY GET PROJECT LOANS AT BANK

The Bank of America is instituting a policy of making loans to members of 4-H Clubs or Future Farmers of America, to assist them in their projects. Loans may be obtained in amounts up to $150 under the plan.

This new policy, according to E. Ogden Hook, of the Placerville branch of the bank, is general with the Bank of America effective this date.

The Placerville Branch had created a 4-H club project loan fund some months ago, using as a nucleus the prize money won by the bank with its gold display in the county fair last year.
